Also visiting Seattle while reading the book. Scope and Content Note With text was leaning toward monarchy and aristocracy as distinct from kings and aristocrats Decidedly, sometime after he became vice-president, Adams concluded that the United States would have to adopt a hereditary legislature and a monarch If you suppose that I have ever had a design or desire of attempting to introduce a government of King, Lords and Commons, or in other words an hereditary Executive, or an hereditary Senate, either into the government of the United States, or that of any individual state, in this country, you are wholly mistaken. DreamWorks Home Ent.
